

Millennium Corporate Credit Union Privacy Policy

This Privacy Policy ensures that Millennium Corporate Credit Union (Millennium) has the appropriate processes in place to meet the requirements of Part 716 of the National Credit Union Administration's (NCUA) Rules and Regulations, Privacy of Consumer Financial Information.

Information Collected and Stored Automatically

For site security purposes and to ensure that this service remains available to all users, Millennium employs software programs to monitor network traffic to identify unauthorized attempts to upload or change information, or otherwise cause damage.

Some information is collected for statistical purposes. Computer software programs are used to create summary statistics, which are used for such purposes as assessing what information is of most or least interest, determining technical design specification, and identifying system performance or problem areas. No personal information is collected or used for this analysis.

We automatically collect, and store, only the following information about your visit:

Dates and times of website visits;

The pages you visit and the result of the request, such as a query;

The IP (Internet Protocol) address (an IP address is a number that is automatically assigned to your computer when you are surfing the web) from which you access our website; and

If you linked to our website from another website, the address and domain name of that website.

Millennium does not use "cookies" (A cookie is a file placed on your hard drive by a web site that allows it to monitor your visit, usually without your knowledge.). You can set your browser to warn you when a placement of a cookie is requested and decide whether or not to accept it.

Information Collected from Emails & Web Forms

When you send us personally identifying information, for example, in an electronic mail message containing a comment or question, or by filling out a form that emails us this information, we use this information to fulfill or respond to your request. We may store these requests to provide us with information for future improvements to our website. We do not create individual profiles with the information you provide. Millennium does not give, sell or transfer personal information to third parties, unless required by law.

Nonpublic Personal Information

Millennium strongly believes in protecting the confidentiality and security of nonpublic information received from our members to process transactions for their members. Nonpublic personal information may be included in transactions such as: wire transfers, Quick Money transfers, check collection and ACH payments. Millennium uses this information solely as a means to process or facilitate the completion of a transaction. Millennium does not disclose nonpublic personal information to any of its affiliates, except to facilitate the completion of the transaction as originally intended.

April, 2017